c/ Valid documents and examination or inspection results;

d/ Tax-to-sales ratio applicable for each field, sector and trade in accordance with the tax laws.

3. Taxpayers shall be subject to tax assessment based on each factor relating to the determination of payable tax amounts in one of the following cases:

a/ Through the examination of tax declaration dossiers, tax offices have grounds to believe that taxpayers make insufficient or inaccurate declarations of factors used as bases for determining payable tax amounts and requested the latter to make additional declarations but the latter fail to do so;

b/ Through the examination of account books, invoices and documents relating to the determination of payable tax amounts, tax offices have grounds to believe that taxpayers inaccurately and untruthfully account factors used as bases for determining payable tax amounts;

c/ Accounting goods and service selling prices that are not true to actually paid prices which results in a reduction of taxable turnover, or accounting prices of goods and materials purchased for production and business activities that are not true to actually paid market prices which leads to increases in costs and creditable value-added tax amounts and a reduction in payable tax amounts;

d/ Submitting tax declaration dossiers while being unable to determine factors used as grounds for determining tax bases or being able to determine such factors but unable to calculate by themselves payable tax amounts.

4. Taxpayers shall be subject to assessment of payable tax amounts based on tax-to-sales ratio prescribed by law in cases in which tax offices detect through examination or inspection that account books, invoices and documents are insufficient and unlawful or tax declaration and calculation are not true for micro-sized enterprises having the maximum turnover as prescribed by the law on support for small- and medium-sized enterprises, and do not fall into the cases mentioned in Clause 3 of this Article.

5. The Government shall detail this Article.

Article 51. Determination of payable tax amounts for business households and individuals that pay taxes by the tax presumption method

1. Tax offices shall determine tax amounts payable by the tax presumption method (below referred to as presumptive tax amounts) for business households and individuals that fail to implement or inadequately implement the regulations on accounting, invoices and documents, except the case referred to in Clause 5 of this Article.

2. Tax offices shall determine presumptive tax amounts based on declarations of business households and individuals, their databases and opinions of commune-level tax consultancy councils.

3. Presumptive tax amounts shall be calculated according to the calendar year or on a monthly basis for seasonal business activities. They shall be made public in communes, wards or townships. In case of change of sectors, trades or business scale, or business termination or suspension, taxpayers shall declare such change to tax offices for adjustment of presumptive tax amounts.

4. The Minister of Finance shall prescribe in detail grounds and order for determination of presumptive tax amounts for business households and individuals.

5. Business households and individuals having turnover and number of laborers meeting the highest criteria set for micro-sized enterprises prescribed by the law on support for small- and medium-sized enterprises shall comply with regulations on accounting and tax payment by declaration method.

Article 52. Tax assessment for imported goods and exported goods

1. Customs offices shall assess taxes on imported goods and exported goods in the following cases:

a/ Tax declarants use unlawful documents to make tax declaration and calculation; fail to make tax declaration or declare inaccurately and insufficiently the contents relating to the determination of tax liability;

b/ Past the set time limit, taxpayers fail to supply, or refuse, delay or prolong the supply of dossiers, account books, documents and data for accurate calculation of payable tax amounts under regulations;

c/ Taxpayers fail to prove or explain or past the set time limit, they fail to explain the contents relating to the determination of tax liability prescribed by law; or they fail to observe customs offices' examination decisions or inspection decisions;

d/ Taxpayers fail to record or insufficiently, untruthfully and inaccurately record figures in account books for determining tax liability;

dd/ Customs offices have sufficient evidence and bases to believe that the declared values are not true to the actual transaction values;

e/ The conducted transactions do not reflect economic substance and are not true to reality, thus affecting the determination of payable tax amounts;

g/ Taxpayers are unable to calculate their payable tax amounts by themselves;

h/ Other cases of unlawful tax declaration and calculation as detected by customs offices or other agencies.

2. Customs offices shall base themselves on the actually imported and exported goods; tax bases and tax calculation methods; tax administration offices' databases and trade databases; customs declaration dossiers; and other documents and information relating to imported and exported goods to assess payable tax amounts.

3. The Government shall detail this Article.

Article 53. Responsibilities of tax administration offices in tax assessment

1. Tax administration offices shall notify in writing taxpayers the reasons for tax assessment, bases for tax assessment, assessed tax amounts and the time limit for tax payment.

2. In case tax administration offices conduct tax assessment via tax examination or tax inspection, reasons for tax assessment, bases for tax assessment, assessed tax amounts and the time limit for tax payment shall be stated in tax examination or tax inspection records and tax administration offices' decisions on handling of tax-related violations.

3. In case the tax amounts assessed by tax administration offices are larger than the payable tax amounts under competent state agencies' complaint settlement decisions or court judgments or rulings, tax administration offices shall refund overpaid tax amounts.

4. In case the tax amounts assessed by tax administration offices are smaller than the payable tax amounts under competent state agencies' complaint settlement decisions or court judgments or rulings, taxpayers shall additionally pay the deficit amounts. Tax administration offices shall take responsibility for the tax assessment.

Article 54. Taxpayers' responsibilities for payment of assessed tax amounts Taxpayers shall pay assessed tax amounts according to tax administration offices' decisions on handling of tax-related violations; if disagreeing with the tax amounts assessed by tax administration offices, taxpayers shall still pay such tax amounts and may request tax administration offices to give explanations, or may lodge complaints or initiate lawsuits about the tax assessment. Taxpayers shall provide dossiers and documents to support their complaints or lawsuits.

Chapter VI

TAX PAYMENT

Article 55. Time limits for tax payment

1. In case taxpayers conduct tax calculation, the deadline for tax payment is the last day of the time limit for submission of tax declaration dossiers. In case the tax declarations dossiers need to be supplemented, the time limit for tax payment is the time limit for submission of tax declaration dossiers of the tax period in which errors are seen in tax declaration dossiers.

Enterprise income tax shall be temporarily paid on a quarterly basis no later than the 30th of the first month of the subsequent quarter.

For crude oil, the time limit for payment of royalty and enterprise income tax upon each sale is 35 days from the date of sale, for crude oil sold in the domestic market, or from the date of customs clearance in accordance with the customs law, for exported crude oil.

For natural gas, royalty and enterprise income tax shall be paid on a monthly basis.

2. In case tax offices conduct tax calculation, the time limit for tax payment is that stated in notices of tax offices.

3. The time limit for payment of other land-related state budget revenues, money paid for grant of the right to exploit water resources or mineral resources, registration fee, and license tax must comply with the Government's regulations.

4. For imported and exported goods liable to tax in accordance with the tax laws, the time limit for tax payment must comply with the Law on Import Duty and Export Duty. In case a tax amount arises after goods are cleared from customs procedures or released:

a/ The time limit for payment of additionally declared tax amounts or payment of assessed tax amounts is the deadline for tax payment under the first customs declaration;

b/ For goods subject to analysis and assessment serving the determination of the payable tax amounts; goods without official prices at the time of registration of the customs declaration; or goods for which the actually paid amount or amounts to be added to customs value has/have not yet been determined at the time of registration of the customs declaration, the time limit for tax payment must comply with regulations of the Minister of Finance.

Article 56. Places and modes of tax payment

1. Taxpayers shall pay taxes into the state budget:

a/ At State Treasury offices;

b/ At tax administration offices where tax declaration dossiers are submitted;

c/ Through organizations authorized by tax administration offices to collect taxes;

d/ Through commercial banks, other credit institutions and service organizations prescribed by law.

2. State Treasury offices, commercial banks, other credit institutions and service organizations prescribed by law shall arrange places, facilities and personnel to collect taxes in a way convenient to taxpayers for them to promptly pay taxes into the state budget.

3. When receiving or deducting tax amounts, agencies and organizations shall issue to taxpayers tax collection documents.

4. Within 8 working hours after collecting tax amounts from taxpayers, agencies and organizations that receive tax amounts shall remit the collected amounts into the state budget. In case of collecting taxes in cash in deep-lying or remote areas, offshore islands, or difficult-to-access areas, the time limit for remitting collected tax amounts into the state budget must comply with regulations of the Minister of Finance.

Article 57. Order of paying taxes, late-payment interests and fines

1. Taxpayers shall pay taxes, late-payment interests and fines according to their payment deadlines and in the order prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article.

2. The order of payment of taxes, late-payment interests and fines is prescribed as follows:

a/ Overdue tax arrears, fines, and late-payment interests subject to coercive collection;

b/ Overdue tax arrears, fines, and late-payment interests not yet subject to coercive collection;

c/ Newly arising tax amounts, fines and late-payment interests.

Article 58. Determination of tax payment date

1. In case tax is paid by cashless payment methods, the tax payment date is the date on which State Treasury offices, commercial banks, other credit institutions or service organizations deduct money on accounts of taxpayers or the persons who pay tax on behalf of taxpayers and is recorded in tax payment documents;

2. In case tax is paid in cash, the tax payment date is the date on which State Treasury offices, tax administration offices or organizations authorized by tax administration offices to collect tax issue tax collection documents.

Article 59. Handling of cases of late payment of tax

1. Taxpayers shall pay late-payment interests in the following cases:

a/ Taxpayers delay tax payment against the prescribed time limit or extended time limit for tax payment, the time limit stated in tax administration offices' notices, the time limit stated in tax assessment decisions or violation-handling decisions of tax administration offices;

b/ Taxpayers make additional declaration to tax declaration dossiers, leading to an increase in the payable tax amount, or competent state agencies detect through examination or inspection that taxpayers have insufficiently declared the payable tax amount; in this case, taxpayers shall pay late-payment interests on the deficit tax amount for the period from the day following the deadline for tax payment for the tax period in which errors are detected or from the deadline for tax payment under the initial customs declaration;

c/ Taxpayers make additional declaration to tax declaration dossiers, leading to a decrease in the refundable tax amount, or competent state agencies detect through examination or inspection that the refundable tax amount is smaller than the actually refunded tax amount; in this case, taxpayers shall pay late-payment interests on the to-be-retrieved refunded tax amount for the period from the date of receiving tax refund from the state budget;

d/ Taxpayers are permitted to pay tax arrears in installments under Clause 5, Article 124 of this Law;

dd/ Taxpayers are not sanctioned for their tax administration-related administrative violations as the statute of limitations for sanctioning has expired but are subject to retrospective collection of the deficit tax amount under Clause 3, Article 137 of this Law;

e/ Taxpayers commit the acts prescribed in Clauses 3 and 4, Article 142 of this Law but are not sanctioned for their tax administration-related administrative violations;

g/ In case agencies and organizations authorized by tax administration offices to collect tax late remit the tax amounts, late-payment interests or fines collected from taxpayers into the state budget, they shall pay late-payment interests on the late-remitted amounts according to regulations.

2. Late-payment interest rates and time periods for calculation of late-payment interests are prescribed as follows:

a/ The late-payment interest rate is 0.03%/day, calculated on the late-paid tax amount;

b/ Late-payment interests shall be calculated consecutively for the period from the day following the day when the late-paid amount prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article arises to the day preceding the day when the tax arrears, to-be-retrieved refunded tax amount, increased tax amount, assessed tax amount or late-remitted tax amount are/is paid or remitted into the state budget.

3. Taxpayers shall determine late-payment interests under Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article and pay them into the state budget according to regulations. Taxpayers that have overpaid tax amounts, late-payment interests or fines shall comply with Clause 1, Article 60 of this Law.

4. Past 30 days from the tax payment deadline, if taxpayers still fail to pay tax amounts, late-payment interests or fines, tax administration offices shall notify taxpayers of the tax amounts or fines they owe and the number of days of late payment.

5. Taxpayers are not subject to late-payment interests in the following cases:

a/ Taxpayers, including also those being subcontractors to contracts signed with project owners under which they will receive payments directly from project owners, supply goods or services for which payments are made from the state budget but have not yet received the payments.

The amount of tax arrears not subject to late-payment interests is the total amount of tax arrears taxpayers still owe to the state budget which, however, must not exceed the money amount not yet received from the state budget;

b/ In the case prescribed at Point b, Clause 4, Article 55 of this Law, taxpayers are not required to pay late-payment interests for the period pending goods analysis and assessment results; announcement of official prices of goods, or the determination of the actually paid amount or amounts to be added to the customs value.

6. Taxpayers who have their tax arrears frozen under Article 83 of this Law are not required to pay late-payment interests.

7. In case taxpayers make additional declaration to tax declaration dossiers, leading to a decrease in the payable tax amount, or tax administration offices or competent state agencies detect through examination or inspection that taxpayers are eligible for reduction of the payable tax amount, the calculated late-payment interest shall be decreased correspondingly to the difference between the initial payable tax amount and the adjusted one.

8. Taxpayers that are subject to late-payment interests under Clause 1 of this Article will be exempt from late-payment interests in force majeure events prescribed in Clause 27, Article 3 of this Law.

9. The Minister of Finance shall prescribe procedures for handling cases of late payment of tax.

Article 60. Handling of overpaid tax amounts, late-payment interests and fines

1. Taxpayers that have paid a tax amount, late-payment interest or fine larger than the payable tax amount, late-payment interest or fine may have the overpaid amount cleared against the tax amount, late-payment interest or fine they still owe or against the payable tax amount, late-payment interest or fine of the subsequent tax period or have the overpaid amount refunded, in case taxpayers do not owe any tax amount, late-payment interest or fine.

In case taxpayers request clearing of the overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine against the tax amount, late-payment interest or fine they owe, late-payment interests will not be calculated on the to-be-cleared amount for the period from the day the overpaid amount arises to the day tax administration offices effect the clearing.

2. In case taxpayers request refund of the overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine, tax administration offices shall issue a decision on refund of the overpaid amount or issue a reply clearly stating the reason for refusal to refund the overpaid amount within 5 working days after receiving the request.

3. Tax administration offices shall not refund but liquidate the overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine on account books and electronic databases in the following cases:

a/ Tax administration offices have notified taxpayers of the refundable overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine but taxpayers have issued a written reply stating that they refuse to receive the refund;

b/ Taxpayers do not operate at the address registered with tax offices and tax administration offices have made an announcement of taxpayers' overpaid amount in the mass media but past 1 year from the date of announcement, taxpayers still fail to send to tax administration offices a written request for refund of the overpaid amount;

c/ Past 10 years from the date of remittance of money into the state budget, taxpayers still fail to request clearing of the overpaid amount against their tax liability or refund of the overpaid amount.

4. In case taxpayers that do not operate at the address of business registration have an overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine and concurrently owe tax arrears, late-payment interest or fine, tax administration offices shall clear the overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine against the tax amount, late-payment interest or fine the taxpayers owe.

5. The Minister of Finance shall prescribe the competence and procedures for handling overpaid tax amounts, late-payment interests or fines under this Article.

Article 61. Tax payment in the course of settlement of complaints or initiation of lawsuits

1. In the course of settlement of complaints or initiation of lawsuits over tax amounts, late-payment interests or fines calculated or assessed by tax administration offices, taxpayers shall still fully pay such tax amounts, late-payment interests or fines, unless competent state agencies decide to suspend the execution of tax administration offices' tax calculation or tax assessment decisions.

2. In case the paid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine is larger than the tax amount, late-payment interest or fine determined under competent agencies' complaint settlement decisions or court judgments or rulings, taxpayers will be refunded the overpaid tax amounts, late-payment interest or fine.

Taxpayers may request the tax administration office to pay an interest at the rate of 0.03%/day on the overpaid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine. Interests shall be paid from the central budget in accordance with the law on the state budget.

3. The procedures for handing the cases in which the paid tax amount, late-payment interest or fine is larger than the tax amount, late-payment interest or fine determined under complaint settlement decisions of competent agencies or court judgments or rulings must comply with Clause 5, Article 60 of this Law.

Article 62. Extension of tax payment time limits

1. Extension of tax payment time limits shall be considered upon request of taxpayers that fall into one of the following cases:

a/ They suffer material damage in the force majeure events prescribed in Clause 27, Article 3 of this Law, thus directly affecting their production or business activities;

b/ They have to suspend operation to relocate their production or business establishments at the request of competent agencies, thus affecting their production and business results.

2. Taxpayers falling into the cases eligible for extension of tax payment time limits prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article will enjoy the extended time limit for payment of part or the whole of the payable tax amount.

3. The tax payment time limit shall be extended:

a/ For no more than 2 years from the date of its expiration, for the case prescribed at Point a, Clause 1 of this Article;

b/ For no more than 1 year from the date of its expiration, for the case prescribed at Point b, Clause 1 of this Article.

4. Taxpayers are not subject to fines and late-payment interests on tax arrears within the extended tax payment time limit.

5. Heads of tax administration offices directly managing taxpayers shall base themselves on dossiers of request for extension of tax payment time limits to decide on the tax amounts eligible for extension of the payment time limits and the extended time limits.

Article 63. Extension of tax payment time limits in special cases

The Government shall decide on the extension of tax payment time limits for entities, sectors and trades that meet special difficulties in each period. The extension of tax payment time limits must not lead to adjustment of state budget revenue estimates already decided by the National Assembly.

Article 64. Dossiers of request for extension of tax payment time limits

1. Taxpayers that fall into the cases eligible for extension of tax payment time limits under this Law shall make and send dossiers of request for extension of tax payment time limits to their managing tax administration offices.

2. A dossier of request for extension of the tax payment time limit must comprise:

a/ A written request for extension of the tax payment time limit, clearly stating the reason for extension, the tax amount eligible for extension of the payment time limit, and the payment time limit;

b/ Documents proving the reasons for extension of the tax payment time limit.

3. The Minister of Finance shall stipulate in detail the dossier of request for extension of the tax payment time limit.

Article 65. Receipt and processing of dossiers of request for extension of tax payment time limits

1. Tax administration offices shall receive dossiers of request for extension of tax payment time limits from taxpayers:

a/ Directly at their offices;

b/ By post;

c/ Via their portals.

2. A dossier of request for extension of the tax payment time limit shall be processed according to the following regulations:

a/ In case the dossier is valid and complete and made according to a set form, the concerned tax administration office shall issue a notice of the extension of the tax payment time limit within 10 working days after receiving the dossier;

b/ In case the dossier is incomplete, the concerned tax administration office shall issue a notice thereof to the taxpayer within 3 working days after receiving the dossier.

Chapter VII

RESPONSIBILITIES TO FULFILL THE TAX PAYMENT OBLIGATION

Article 66. Fulfillment of the tax payment obligation by persons on exit

1. Taxpayers subject to coercive enforcement of tax administration-related administrative decisions, Vietnamese who leave the country for permanent residence abroad, overseas Vietnamese and foreigners shall fulfill the tax payment obligation before leaving Vietnam; those who fail to fulfill the tax payment obligation shall be suspended from exit in accordance with the law on entry and exit.

2. Tax administration offices shall notify immigration agencies of the persons and taxpayers prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article.

3. The Government shall detail this Article.

Article 67. Fulfillment of the tax payment obligation in case of dissolution, bankruptcy or termination of operation

1. Dissolved enterprises shall fulfill the tax payment obligation in accordance with the laws on enterprises, credit institutions, and insurance business, and other relevant laws.

2. Bankrupt enterprises shall fulfill the tax payment obligation in accordance with the order and procedures specified by the Law on Bankruptcy.

3. In case enterprises terminate their operation or no longer conduct business at the registered place but have not yet fulfilled the tax payment obligation, their tax arrears shall be paid by owners of private enterprises, owners of single-member limited liability companies, capital-contributing shareholders, capital-contributing members, or partners according to the Law on Enterprises' provisions applicable to enterprises of each type.

4. In case business households or business individuals terminate their operation without having fulfilled the tax payment obligation, their tax arrears shall be paid by heads of those households or those individuals themselves.

5. If taxpayers' branches or dependent cost-accounting units terminate their operation but still owe taxes and other state budget revenues, the taxpayers shall inherit the debts owed to the state budget by their branches or dependent cost-accounting units.

Article 68. Fulfillment of the tax payment obligation by reorganized enterprises

1. To-be-divided enterprises shall fulfill the tax payment obligation before the division. If a divided enterprise fails to fulfill the tax payment obligation, enterprises newly founded on the basis of the divided enterprise shall fulfill the tax payment obligation.

2. To-be-split, to-be-consolidated or to-be-merged enterprises shall fulfill the tax payment obligation before the splitting, consolidation or merger. If they fail to fulfill the tax payment obligation, the split enterprises and splitting enterprises, consolidating enterprises or merging enterprises shall fulfill the tax payment obligation.

3. Enterprises subject to ownership transformation shall fulfill the tax payment obligation before the transformation. If the enterprises have not yet fulfilled the tax payment obligation, enterprises founded after the transformation shall fulfill the tax payment obligation.

4. The reorganization of enterprises does not change the time limit for tax payment by reorganized enterprises. If reorganized enterprises or newly founded enterprises fail to fully pay taxes within the set tax payment time limit, they shall be sanctioned in accordance with law.

Article 69. Fulfillment of the tax payment obligation in case taxpayers are dead or are declared by court as dead, missing or having lost their civil act capacity

1. The tax payment obligation of dead persons or persons declared by court as dead shall be fulfilled by their heirs with the property left by dead persons or persons declared by court as dead or the property portions divided to these heirs at the time of inheritance acceptance. In case no heir is available or all heirs renounce the inheritance, the fulfillment of the tax payment obligation of dead persons or persons declared by court as dead must comply with the civil law.

2. The tax payment obligation of persons who are declared by court as missing or having lost their civil act capacity shall be fulfilled by managers of property of those persons with their property portions.

3. In case the court issues a decision to annul the decision declaring a person as dead, missing or having lost his/her civil act capacity, his/her tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines already written off under Article 85 of this Law shall be restored but the taxpayer will not be subject to late-payment interests for the period he/she is declared as dead, missing or having lost his/her civil act capacity.

Chapter VII

PROCEDURES FOR TAX REFUND

Article 70. Cases eligible for tax refund

1. Tax administration offices shall make tax refund for organizations and individuals eligible for tax refund in accordance with the tax laws.

2. Tax offices shall refund overpaid amounts to taxpayers that have paid into the state budget an amount larger than the payable amount under Clause 1, Article 60 of this Law.

Article 71. Tax refund dossiers

1. Taxpayers that are eligible for tax refund shall make and send tax refund dossiers to competent tax administration offices.

2. A tax refund dossier must comprise:

a/ A written claim for tax refund;

b/ Documents relating to the tax refund claim.

Article 72. Receipt of and response to information on tax refund dossiers

1. Tax administration offices shall receive tax refund dossiers according to the following regulations:

a/ Taxpayer-managing tax offices shall receive tax refund dossiers from taxpayers eligible for tax refund in accordance with the tax laws. Revenue-managing tax offices shall receive dossiers of request for refund of overpaid amounts; for cases of request for refund of overpaid amounts under enterprise income tax finalization or personal income tax finalization, the tax offices that have received taxpayers' enterprise income tax or personal income tax finalization dossiers shall receive dossiers of request for refund of overpaid amounts;

b/ Revenue-managing customs offices shall receive tax refund dossiers for cases eligible for tax refund in accordance with the tax laws; in case foreigners or overseas Vietnamese on exit have goods eligible for tax refund, customs offices carrying out exit procedures shall receive tax refund dossiers.

2. Taxpayers shall submit tax refund dossiers:

a/ Directly at tax administration offices;

b/ Sending dossiers by post;

c/ Sending dossiers via portals of tax administration offices, for electronic dossiers.

3. Within 3 working days after receiving a tax refund dossier, the tax administration office shall classify the dossier and notify the concerned taxpayer of the acceptance of the dossier and the time limit for processing the dossier or send a written notice to the taxpayer, if the dossier is incomplete.

4. The Minister of Finance shall detail this Article.

Article 73. Classification of tax refund dossiers

1. Tax refund dossiers shall be classified into dossiers subject to examination before tax refund and dossiers entitled to tax refund before examination.

2. Dossiers subject to examination before tax refund include:

a/ Dossiers of taxpayers that request for the first time tax refund in each case of eligibility for tax refund in accordance with the tax laws. For a taxpayer that has sent a tax refund dossier to a tax administration office for the first time but is ineligible for tax refund according to regulations, the subsequent request for tax refund shall be considered first-time request;

b/ Dossiers submitted within 2 years after the concerned taxpayer is handled for tax evasion;

c/ Dossiers of organizations that dissolve, are bankrupt or terminate operation and of state enterprises that are sold, assigned or transferred;

d/ Tax refund dossiers classified as highly risky according to regulations on risk management and classification in tax administration;

dd/ Tax refund dossiers eligible for tax refund before examination but past the time limit stated in the notice of tax administration offices, taxpayers fail to give explanations on, or supplement, the dossiers or have managed to give explanations on, or supplement, the dossiers but cannot prove the accuracy of the declared tax amounts;

e/ Tax refund dossiers for imported and exported goods the payment for which is not made via commercial banks or other credit institutions in accordance with law;

g/ Tax refund dossiers for imported and exported goods subject to examination before tax refund according to the Government's regulations.

3. Dossiers eligible for tax refund before examination are dossiers of taxpayers that do not fall into the cases prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article.

4. The Minister of Finance shall detail this Article.

Article 74. Places of examination of tax refund dossiers

1. Dossiers eligible for tax refund before examination shall be examined at offices of tax administration offices.

2. Dossiers subject to examination before tax refund shall be examined at offices of taxpayers or related agencies, organizations and individuals.

Article 75. Time limits for processing tax refund dossiers

1. For a dossier eligible for tax refund before examination, within 6 working days after issuing a notice of dossier acceptance and the time limit for processing the dossier, the concerned tax administration office shall decide to refund tax to the taxpayer or issue a notice of shift to examination of the dossier before tax refund, if the dossier falls into the case prescribed in Clause 2, Article 73 of this Law, or issue a notice of refusal to refund tax, if the dossier is unqualified for tax refund.

In case the information declared in the tax refund dossier differs from management information of the tax administration office, the tax administration office shall make a written notice thereof for the taxpayer to make explanation or supplement information. The time limit for making explanation or supplementing information shall not be counted into the time limit for processing the tax refund dossier.

2. For a dossier subject to examination before tax refund, within 40 days after issuing a notice of acceptance of the dossier and the time limit for processing the tax refund dossier, the tax administration office shall decide to refund tax, or not to refund tax to the taxpayer, if the dossier is unqualified for tax refund.

3. If the tax administration office issues the tax refund decision after the expiration of the time limit prescribed in Clause 1 or 2 of this Article due to its fault, in addition to the to-be-refunded tax amount, the tax administration office shall also pay interests on this amount at the rate of 0.03%/day for the period of late refund. Interests shall be paid from the central budget in accordance with the law on the state budget.

Article 76. Competence to decide on tax refund

1. The General Director of Taxation or directors of provincial-level Tax Departments shall decide on tax refund for cases of tax refund under the tax laws.

2. Heads of tax offices receiving dossiers of request for refund of overpaid tax amounts shall decide on tax refund for cases of refund of overpaid tax amounts under this Law.

3. The General Director of Customs, directors of provincial-level Customs Departments or heads of district-level Customs Branches of the localities where to-be-refunded tax amounts arise shall decide on tax refund for cases of tax refund under the tax laws.

4. The Minister of Finance shall prescribe the order and procedures for tax refund.

Article 77. Post-tax refund inspection and examination

1. Tax administration offices shall conduct inspection and examination for dossiers entitled to tax refund before examination according to the principles of risk management in tax administration within 5 years after the date of issuing tax refund decisions.

2. The procedures and tax administration offices' competence and responsibility for inspection and examination of tax refund dossiers must comply with this Law and the Inspection Law.

Chapter IX

NON-COLLECTION OF TAXES, TAX EXEMPTION AND REDUCTION; FREEZING OF TAX ARREARS; WRITE-OFF OF TAX ARREARS, LATE-PAYMENT INTERESTS AND FINES

Section 1

NON-COLLECTION OF TAXES, TAX EXEMPTION AND REDUCTION

Article 78. Non-collection of tax on imported and exported goods

1. Not to collect taxes in cases not liable to payment of import duty and export duty in accordance with the law on import duty and export duty.

2. The Minister of Finance shall prescribe the procedures for non-collection of taxes.

Article 79. Tax exemption and reduction

1. Tax exemption and reduction shall be effected in accordance with the tax laws and Clause 2 of this Article.

2. The following entities are entitled to tax exemption:

a/ Households and individuals that are payers of non-agricultural land use tax with the annual payable tax amount of VND 50,000 or less;

b/ Individuals with the annual payable tax amount left after finalization of personal income tax from wages and remuneration of VND 50,000 or less.

Article 80. Tax exemption or reduction dossiers

1. In case taxpayers determine by themselves the tax amount to be exempted or reduced, a tax exemption or reduction dossier must comprise:

a/ A tax return;

b/ Documents relating to the determination of the tax amount to be exempted or reduced.

2. In case tax administration offices decide on tax exemption or reduction, a tax exemption or reduction dossier must comprise:

a/ A written request for tax exemption or reduction, clearly stating the kind of tax requested for exemption or reduction; reasons for tax exemption or reduction; and the tax amount proposed to be exempted or reduced;

b/ Documents relating to the determination of the tax amount to be exempted or reduced.

3. In the case of tax exemption prescribed at Point a, Clause 2, Article 79 of this Law, tax offices shall base themselves on tax registers to announce lists of households and organizations eligible for tax exemption. In case of tax exemption under Point b, Clause 2, Article 79 of this Law, taxpayers shall determine by themselves the to-be-exempted tax amounts on the basis of the personal income tax finalization declaration.

4. The Minister of Finance shall specify tax exemption or reduction dossiers prescribed in this Article; cases in which taxpayers determine by themselves the to-be-exempted or to-be-reduced tax amounts and cases in which tax administration offices determine the to-be-exempted or to-be-reduced tax amounts.

Article 81. Submission and receipt of tax exemption or reduction dossiers

1. In case taxpayers determine by themselves the to-be-exempted or to-be-reduced tax amounts, the submission and receipt of tax exemption or reduction dossiers shall be conducted simultaneously with tax declaration and submission and receipt of tax declaration dossiers under Chapter IV of this Law.

2. In case tax administration offices decide on tax exemption or reduction in accordance with the tax laws, the submission of tax exemption or reduction dossiers is specified as follows:

a/ For export duty, import duty and other taxes on exported and imported goods, dossiers shall be submitted to customs offices competent to process such dossiers according to the Government's regulations;

b/ For other taxes, dossiers shall be submitted to tax administration offices directly managing taxpayers.

3. Taxpayers shall submit tax exemption or reduction dossiers:

a/ Directly at tax administration offices;

b/ Sending dossiers by post;

c/ Sending dossiers via portals of tax administration offices, for electronic dossiers.

4. Tax administration offices that receive tax exemption or reduction dossiers shall notify the receipt of the dossiers; in case tax exemption or reduction dossiers are invalid or incomplete or are made not according to set forms, tax administration offices shall, within 3 working days after receiving those dossiers, notify such in writing to taxpayers.

Article 82. Time limits for processing tax exemption or reduction dossiers in case tax administration offices decide on the to-be-exempted or to-be-reduced tax amounts

1. Within 30 days after receiving a complete dossier, the concerned tax administration office shall issue a tax exemption or reduction decision or notify in writing the taxpayer of reasons for ineligibility for tax exemption or reduction.

2. When necessary to conduct site inspection to obtain sufficient grounds for processing a tax exemption or reduction dossier, within 40 days after receiving a complete dossier, the concerned tax administration office shall issue a tax exemption or reduction decision or notify in writing the taxpayer of reasons for ineligibility for tax exemption or reduction.

Section 2

FREEZING OF TAX ARREARS

Article 83. Cases eligible for freezing of tax arrears

1. Taxpayers that are dead or declared by court as dead, missing or having lost their civil act capacity.

The tax arrears freezing period shall be calculated from the date of issuance of a death certificate or death notice or a substitute of the death notice in accordance with the law on civil status or a court ruling declaring the concerned taxpayer as dead, missing or having lost civil act capacity.

2. Taxpayers that have sent their dissolution decisions to tax administration offices and business registration agencies to carry out dissolution procedures and business registration agencies have made an announcement in the national business registration information system of taxpayers' undergoing dissolution procedures but the taxpayers have not yet completed dissolution procedures.

The tax arrears freezing period shall be calculated from the date business registration agencies make announcement of the taxpayers' undergoing dissolution procedures in the national business registration information system.

3. Taxpayers that have filed a request for opening of bankruptcy procedures or taxpayers of whom persons with related rights and obligations have filed a request for opening of bankruptcy procedures in accordance with the law on bankruptcy.

The tax arrears freezing period shall be calculated from the date competent courts notify that they have accepted the request for opening of bankruptcy procedures or that the taxpayers have sent enterprise bankruptcy dossiers to tax administration offices and are awaiting completion of debt payment and handling procedures in accordance with the Law on Bankruptcy.

4. Taxpayers no longer conduct business operation at the addresses registered with business registration agencies and tax administration offices have coordinated with commune-level People's Committees of the localities where the taxpayers' offices are located or where exist their contact addresses in examining and verifying information on taxpayers' non-presence in the localities and issued nationwide notices of the taxpayers' or their at-law representatives' non-presence at the address of taxpayers' offices or contact addresses registered with tax administration offices.

The tax arrears freezing period shall be calculated from the date tax administration offices issue a nationwide notice of the taxpayers' or their at-law representatives' non-presence at the addresses of their offices or contact addresses registered with tax administration offices.

5. Tax administration offices have requested in writing competent agencies to revoke, or competent agencies have revoked, taxpayers' business registration certificates, enterprise registration certificates, cooperative registration certificates, establishment and operation licenses or practice licenses.

The tax arrears freezing period shall be calculated from the date tax administration offices request in writing competent agencies to revoke, or from the effective date of the decision on revocation of, taxpayers' business registration certificates, enterprise registration certificates, cooperative registration certificates, establishment and operation licenses or practice licenses.

Article 84. Procedures, dossiers and period of, and competence to decide on, tax arrears freezing

1. The Government shall specify the procedures, dossiers and period of tax arrears freezing for cases eligible for tax arrears freezing.

2. Heads of tax administration offices directly managing taxpayers shall decide on tax arrears freezing.

3. Tax administration offices shall further monitor tax arrears which are frozen and coordinate with related agencies in order to retrieve such tax arrears when taxpayers are able to pay them or to write them off under Article 85 of this Law.

Section 3

WRITE-OFF OF TAX ARREARS, LATE-PAYMENT INTERESTS AND FINES

Article 83. Cases eligible for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines

1. Enterprises and cooperatives that have been declared bankrupt and made payments in accordance with the bankruptcy law and therefore have no assets to pay tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines.

2. Individuals who are dead or declared by court as dead, missing or having lost their civil act capacity and have no assets, including also inheritance, to pay tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines.

3. Taxpayers other than those prescribed in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article have tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines against which tax administration offices have applied coercive measures prescribed at Point g, Clause 1, Article 125 of this Law and which remain irretrievable though 10 years have passed from the payment deadline.

Before resuming production or business activities or establishing new production or business establishments, taxpayers being individuals, business individuals, heads of households, heads of business households, or owners of private enterprises or single-member limited liability companies that have their tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines written off as prescribed in this Clause shall refund the written-off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines to the State.

4. Taxpayers that are affected by large-scale natural disasters, catastrophes or epidemics and have been considered for exemption from late-payment interests under Clause 8, Article 59 of this Law and are entitled to extension of the tax payment time limit under Point a, Clause 1, Article 62 of this Law but still suffer damage and are unable to restore production and business activities and incapable of payment of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines.

5. The Government shall prescribe the coordination among tax administration offices, business registration agencies and local administrations so as to ensure that the written-off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines will be refunded to the state budget under Clause 3 of this Article before granting business registration certificates or enterprise registration certificates; and detail Clause 4 of this Article.

Article 86. Dossiers of request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines

1. Tax administration offices directly managing taxpayers eligible for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines shall make and send dossiers of request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines to competent agencies or persons.

2. A dossier of request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines must comprise:

a/ A written request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines, made by the tax administration office directly managing the taxpayer eligible for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines;

b/ The bankruptcy declaration decision, for taxpayers being enterprises or cooperatives declared bankrupt;

c/ Documents relating to the request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines.

3. The Minister of Finance shall detail this Article.

Article 87. Competence to write off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines

1. Provincial-level People's Committee chairpersons shall decide to write off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines for:

a/ The cases prescribed in Clauses 1 and 2, Article 85 of this Law;

b/ Households, business households, business individuals and individuals prescribed in Clause 3, Article 85 of this Law; c/ Enterprises and cooperatives falling into the cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 85 of this Law and having tax arrears, late-payment interest or fine of under VND 5,000,000,000.

2. The General Director of Taxation or General Director of Customs shall decide to write off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines for enterprises and cooperatives falling into the cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 85 of this Law and having tax arrears, late-payment interest or fine of between VND 5,000,000,000 and under VND 10,000,000,000.

3. The Minister of Finance shall decide to write off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines for enterprises and cooperatives falling into the cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 85 of this Law and having tax arrears, late-payment interest or fine of between VND 10,000,000,000 and under VND 15,000,000,000.

4. The Prime Minister shall decide to write off tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines for enterprises and cooperatives falling into the cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 85 of this Law and having tax arrears, late-payment interest or fine amount of VND 15,000,000,000 or higher.

5. Provincial-level People's Committee chairpersons shall report on the write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines to the same-level People's Councils at the first meeting every year. The Minister of Finance shall summarize information on the write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines for reporting by the Government to the National Assembly upon finalization of state budget funds.

Article 88. Responsibilities for processing dossiers of request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests and fines

1. Competent agencies and persons that have received dossiers of request for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines shall notify the agencies having sent such dossiers within 10 working days after receiving them for the latter to complete the dossiers, if the dossiers are incomplete.

2. Within 60 days after receiving the complete dossiers, competent persons shall issue decisions on write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines or notices of ineligibility for write-off of tax arrears, late-payment interests or fines to the agencies having sent the dossiers.

Chapter X

USE OF ELECTRONIC INVOICES AND DOCUMENTS

Article 89. Electronic invoices

1. Electronic invoices (e-invoices) are invoices with or without tax offices' identification numbers which are displayed in the form of electronic data created with electronic means by organizations or individuals selling goods or providing services to acknowledge information on the sale of goods or provision of services in accordance with the accounting and tax laws, including also invoices created on billing machines connected to tax offices for transmission of electronic data.

2. E-invoices include value-added invoices, sales invoices, electronic stamps, electronic tickets, electronic cards, electronic receipts, electronic delivery-cum-internal transfer slips or electronic documents with other titles.

3. E-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers are those of which identification numbers are granted by tax offices before being sent to buyers by organizations and individuals selling goods or providing services.

The tax office's identification number on an e-invoice consists of the serial number of the transaction, which is a unique sequence of numerals created by the tax office's system, and a sequence of characters encrypted by the tax office based on information created by the seller on the invoice.

4. E-invoices without tax offices' identification numbers are those sent by organizations and individuals selling goods or providing services to buyers without identification numbers granted by tax offices.

5. The Government shall detail this Article.

Article 90. Principles of making, management and use of e-invoices

1. When selling goods or providing services, sellers shall make e-invoices for issuance to sellers according to the standard format and fill sufficient information in accordance with the tax and accounting laws, regardless of the value of the goods sold or services provided at each time.

2. If using billing machines, the sellers shall register to use e-invoices created on billing machines connected with tax offices for transmission of electronic data.

3. The registration, management and use of e-invoices in sale of goods and provision of services must comply with the e-transaction, accounting and tax laws.

4. Tax offices shall grant identification numbers for e-invoices based on information created on invoices by enterprises, economic institutions, other institutions, or business households. Enterprises, economic institutions, other institutions, and business households and individuals shall be held responsible for the accuracy of information on invoices.

5. The Government shall detail this Article.

Article 91. Use of e-invoices in sale of goods and provision of services

1. When selling goods or providing services, enterprises and economic institutions shall use e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers, regardless of the value of the goods sold or services provided at each time, except the cases specified in Clauses 2 and 4 of this Article.

2. 3. Business households and individuals falling into the cases specified in Clause 5, Article 51 of this Law and those that can determine turnover when selling goods or providing services shall use e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers upon sale of goods or provision of services.

4. Business households and individuals that do not satisfy the conditions for use of e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers prescribed in Clauses 1 and 3 of this Article but need invoices for issuance to customers or enterprises, economic institutions, and other institutions that are granted e-invoices by tax offices for issuance to customers shall be granted by tax offices e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers upon each time the need arises and shall declare and pay taxes before being granted e-invoices by tax offices.

Article 92. E-invoicing services

1. E-invoicing services include e-invoicing solution services and taxpayer-to-tax office data transmission services for e-invoices without tax offices' identification numbers and e-invoicing services for e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers.

2. E-invoicing service providers include organizations providing e-invoicing solutions and organizations providing e-invoice data receipt, transmission and storage services and other services related to e-invoices.

3. The Government shall detail this Article and specify cases of using e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers without having to pay service charges, cases of using e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers and having to pay service charges, and cases of using e-invoices without tax offices' identification numbers via e-invoicing service providers.

4. The Minister of Finance shall specify criteria for selection of e-invoicing service providers to sign contracts on provision of services for e-invoices with tax offices' identification numbers, e-invoice data receipt, transmission and storage services, and other relevant services.

Article 93. E-invoice databases

1. Tax offices shall build, manage and develop databases and technical infrastructure facilities of invoice information systems; organize the collection and processing of information and management of invoice databases, and ensure the maintenance, operation, confidentiality, security and safety of invoice information systems; and formulate standard formats of invoices.

E-invoice databases shall be used for tax administration and provision of information on e-invoices to related organizations and individuals.

2. Enterprises and economic institutions mentioned in Clause 2, Article 91 of this Law that use e-invoices without tax offices' identification numbers shall provide e-invoice data under regulations of the Minister of Finance.

3. The Ministries of Industry and Trade; Natural Resources and Environment; Public Security; Transport; and Health and other related agencies shall connect and share necessary related information and data in the fields under their management with the Ministry of Finance for use as a basis for formulation of e-invoice databases.

4. When inspecting goods in market circulation, if such goods are accompanied with e-invoices, state agencies and competent persons shall not require paper invoices but access portals of tax offices to look up information on relevant e-invoices to serve their management requirements. Related agencies shall use devices to access and look up e-invoice data.

5. The Minister of Finance shall provide forms, management and use of electronic stamps; the looking up, provision and use of e-invoice information; the provision of e-invoice information in case of impossibility to look up invoice data due to incidents or natural disasters affecting the Internet access.

1. Electronic documents include documents and receipts displayed in the form of electronic data which are issued by tax administration offices or tax-deducting organizations by electronic means upon carrying out tax-related procedures related or other state budget revenues, and other types of electronic documents and receipts.

2. The Government shall specify types of electronic documents mentioned in this Article and the management and use of electronic documents.

Chapter XI TAXPAYER INFORMATION

Article 95. Taxpayer information systems

1. A taxpayer information system is a collection of information and data on taxpayers which are collected, arranged, stored, exploited and used in accordance with this Law.

Chapter XIII

TAX EXAMINATION AND INSPECTION

Section 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS ON TAX EXAMINATION AND INSPECTION

Article 107. Principles of tax examination and inspection

1. To apply the risk management principles in tax administration and apply information technology in tax examination and inspection.

2. To comply with this Law, other relevant laws and regulations on forms used in the examination and inspection and tax examination order, procedures and dossiers as prescribed by the Minister of Finance.

3. Not to obstruct normal operation of taxpayers.

4. When conducting tax examination or inspection at offices of taxpayers, heads of tax administration offices shall issue examination or inspection decisions.

5. Tax examination and inspection aim to assess the completeness, accuracy and truthfulness of contents of documents, information and dossiers declared, submitted or produced by taxpayers to tax administration offices; assess taxpayers' observance of the tax laws and other relevant laws so as to obtain grounds for tax handling in accordance with law.

Article 108. Processing of tax examination and inspection results

1. Based on tax examination and inspection results, heads of tax administration offices shall issue decisions on handling of tax-related violations, recovery of tax amounts refunded in contravention of the tax laws or sanctioning of tax administration-related administrative violations according to their competence or request competent persons to issue decisions on sanctioning of tax administration-related administrative violations. In case acts of administrative violations are clearly defined in tax examination or inspection records, such records shall be regarded as administrative violation records.

2. If, through tax examination and inspection, an act of tax evasion showing criminal signs is detected, tax administration offices shall forward the file thereof to a competent investigation body for investigation in accordance with law. Tax administration offices shall coordinate with proceeding-conducting bodies in investigation, prosecution and trial in accordance with law.

Section 2

TAX EXAMINATION

Article 109. Tax examination at offices of tax administration offices

1. Tax examination at offices of tax administration offices, which shall be carried out by tax administration offices for tax dossiers, is prescribed as follows:

a/ Tax examination at offices of tax offices shall be carried out on the basis of taxpayers' tax dossiers in order to assess the completeness and accuracy of information and documents in such dossiers, and the tax law observance by taxpayers. Tax officers tasked to carry out the tax examination shall propose plans on tax examination at offices of tax offices or handling under Clause 2 of this Article based on the degree of tax risks of tax dossiers as classified by information technology in databases or results of analysis of tax dossiers according to their degree of tax risks as assigned by heads of tax offices;

b/ Tax examination at offices of customs offices shall be carried out to examine and compare contents of tax dossiers with relevant information and documents, provisions of the tax laws and results of physical inspection of exports and imports when necessary. Post-customs clearance examination at offices of customs offices must comply with the customs law.

2. The handling of results of tax examination at offices of tax administration offices is specified as follows:

a/ If a violation which leads to loss of tax revenues or tax evasion is detected through the tax examination in the course of carrying out customs procedures, taxpayers shall fully pay payable tax amounts and be imposed fines in accordance with this Law and other relevant laws.

b/ If tax dossiers have unclear contents related to payable, exempted or reduced tax amounts, tax amounts to be deducted and carried forward to the subsequent period, refundable tax amounts or tax amounts not to be collected, tax administration offices shall notify and request taxpayers to make explanations or add information and documents. If taxpayers are able to explain unclear contents and add information and documents to prove accuracy of declared tax amounts, their tax dossiers will be accepted. In case of lacking grounds to prove accuracy of declared tax amounts, tax administration offices shall request taxpayers to make additional declarations.

Past the time limit notified by tax administration offices, if taxpayers fail to explain unclear contents and add information and documents or make additional declarations in their tax dossiers, or if they improperly explain unclear contents or improperly make additional declarations in their tax dossiers, heads of tax administration offices shall assess payable tax amounts or issue decisions on tax examination at offices of taxpayers or, on that basis, formulate examination and inspection plans according to the principles of risk management in tax administration.

Article 110. Tax examination at offices of taxpayers

1. Tax examination at offices of taxpayers shall be carried out in the following cases:

a/ Cases in which taxpayers' dossiers are subject to examination before tax refund; post-tax refund examination for dossiers eligible for tax refund before examination;

b/ Cases specified at Point b, Clause 2, Article 109 of this Law;

c/ Cases of post-customs clearance examination at offices of customs declarants in accordance with the customs law;

d/ Cases which show signs of law violations;

dd/ Cases of examination under plans;

e/ Cases proposed by the State Audit Office, state inspectorates and other competent agencies;

g/ Cases in which enterprises are divided, split up, merged or consolidated, undergo ownership transformation, dissolve, terminate operation, are equitized, have their tax identification numbers invalidated, change their business locations and cases of unscheduled examination or examination under directions of competent authorities, except cases of dissolution and termination of operation without requiring tax finalization by tax offices in accordance with law.

2. For the cases specified at Points dd, e and g, Clause 1 of this Article, tax administration offices shall carry out examination at offices of taxpayers no more than once a year.

3. Tax examination decisions must be sent to taxpayers within 3 working days and publicized within 10 working days after signing. Before tax examination decisions are publicized, if taxpayers can prove that their declared tax amounts are accurate and they have fully paid such tax amounts, tax administration offices shall cancel tax examination decisions.

4. Order and procedures for tax examination are as follows:

a/ Announcing the tax examination decision when tax examination commences;

b/ Comparing declared contents with accounting books and documents, financial statements, tax risk analysis results, information and data available at the office of the tax office, relevant documents and practical state within the scope and contents of the tax examination decision;

c/ Carrying out tax examination at the office of the taxpayer within the time limit stated in the examination decision, which, however, must not exceed 10 working days. The examination time limit shall be calculated from the date the examination decision is publicized. In case the scope of examination is large and covers complicated contents, the person having decided on the examination may extend such time limit only once for no more than 10 working days;

d/ Making a written record of tax examination within 5 working days after the expiration of the examination time limit;

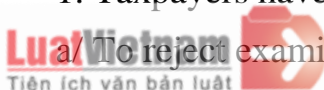

dd/ Handling violations according to competence or proposing competent authorities to handle violations based on examination results.

5. Post-customs clearance examination must comply with the law on customs.

Article 111. Rights and obligations of taxpayers in tax examination at offices of taxpayers

1. Taxpayers have the following rights:

a/ To reject examination if there is no tax examination decision;

b/ To refuse to provide information and documents irrelevant to tax examination contents; information and documents pertaining to state secrets, unless otherwise provided for by law;

c/ To receive records of tax examination and request explanations of such contents;

d/ To reserve their opinions in records of tax examination;

dd/ To file complaints, institute lawsuits and claim damages in accordance with law;

e/ To denounce law violations committed in the course of tax examination.

2. Taxpayers have the following obligations:

a/ To comply with tax examination decisions of tax administration offices;

b/ To promptly, fully and accurately provide information and documents relevant to the examination contents at the request of tax examination teams; to take responsibility before law for the accuracy and truthfulness of provided information and documents;

c/ To sign records of tax administration within 5 working days after the completion of the examination;

d/ To comply with recommendations in tax examination records and conclusions and decisions on handling based on tax examination results.

Article 112. Tasks and powers of heads of tax administration offices that issue tax examination decisions and tax administration officers in tax examination

1. Heads of tax administration offices that issue tax examination decisions have the following tasks and powers:

a/ To direct the compliance with the examination contents and time limit stated in tax examination decisions;

b/ To apply the measures specified in Article 122 of this Law;

c/ To extend the examination time limit;

d/ To issue decisions on tax handling or sanctioning of administrative violations according to their competence, or to request competent persons to make conclusions and issue decisions on sanctioning of tax administration-related administrative violations;

dd/ To settle complaints and denunciations according to their competence.

2. While carrying out tax examination, tax administration officers have the following tasks and powers:

a/ To strictly comply with examination contents and time limit stated in tax examination decisions;

b/ To request taxpayers to provide information and documents relevant to examination contents;

c/ To make records of tax examination; to report on examination results to persons who have issued examination decisions and take responsibility for the accuracy, truthfulness and objectiveness of those records and reports;

d/ To sanction administrative violations according to their competence or propose competent persons to issue decisions on handling of tax-related violations.

Section 3

TAX INSPECTION

Article 113. Cases subject to tax inspection

1. When there are signs of violations of the tax laws.

Section 4

MEASURES TO BE APPLIED IN TAX INSPECTION TO CASES SHOWING SIGNS OF TAX EVASION

Article 121. Collection of information about acts of tax evasion

1. Heads of tax administration offices may request agencies, organizations and individuals that have information on acts of tax evasion to provide such information in writing or verbally.

2. When requested to provide information in writing, agencies, organizations and individuals shall provide information with contents, within a time limit and to an address as requested and take responsibility for accuracy and truthfulness of the provided information. If they are unable to provide information, they shall reply in writing clearly stating the reason.

3. When requested to provide information verbally, the concerned persons shall present themselves at the time and place indicated in written requests for provision of information with requested contents and take responsibility for the accuracy and truthfulness of the provided information. If they are unable to present themselves, they shall provide information in writing.

In the course of collection of information in verbal form, members of inspection teams shall make written records thereof and may make public audio-visual recordings.

Article 122. Temporary seizure of documents and exhibits related to acts of tax evasion

1. Heads of tax administration offices or tax inspection teams may decide on temporary seizure of documents and exhibits related to acts of tax evasion.

2. Temporary seizure of documents and exhibits related to acts of tax evasion or tax fraud shall apply when it is necessary to verify circumstances for making decisions on handling or prompt prevention of acts of tax evasion.

3. In the course of tax inspection, if an inspected entity shows signs of dispersion or destruction of documents and exhibits related to acts of tax evasion, the head of a tax inspection team on duty may temporarily seize those documents and exhibits. Within 24 hours after temporarily seizing documents and exhibits, the head of the tax inspection team shall report to the head of the tax administration office for issuance of a decision on temporary seizure of documents and exhibits. Within 8 working hours after receiving a report, a competent person shall consider and issue a decision on temporary seizure of documents and exhibits. If a competent person disagrees with the temporary seizure, the head of the tax inspection team shall return documents and exhibits within 8 working hours.

4. When temporarily seizing documents and exhibits related to acts of tax evasion, the head of a tax inspection team shall make a written record of temporary seizure of documents and exhibits. Such a record must clearly state appellations, quantities and types of temporarily seized documents and exhibits, and bear signatures of the person who temporarily seizes and person who currently manages documents and exhibits. Issuers of decisions on temporary seizure of documents and exhibits shall preserve the temporarily seized documents and exhibits and be held responsible before law if these documents and exhibits are lost, sold, exchanged or damaged.

In case documents and exhibits need to be sealed up, the sealing shall be carried out in the presence of owners of such documents and exhibits. When owners of documents and exhibits are absent, the sealing shall be carried out in the presence of representatives of their families or organizations, commune-level administrations and witnesses.

5. Exhibits being Vietnamese currency, foreign currencies, gold, silver, gems, precious metals and objects subject to special management shall be preserved in accordance with law; for exhibits being perishable goods or articles, issuers of decisions on temporary seizure of exhibits shall make written records of temporary seizure and promptly sell them to avoid any loss. Proceeds from the sale of exhibits shall be transferred into custody accounts opened at State Treasury offices so as to ensure full collection of tax amounts, late-payment interests and fines.

6. Within 10 working days after the temporary seizure is carried out, an issuer of a decision on temporary seizure of documents and exhibits shall dispose of the temporarily seized documents and exhibits by taking measures stated in the disposal decision or return them to their owners when confiscation of such documents and exhibits is not applied.
