

SEMINAR IN MARCH 2025

GLOBAL MINIMUM TAX AND ITS IMPACT ON TRANSFER PRICING OF FDI ENTERPRISES

This seminar helps FDI enterprises better understand the impact of the Global Minimum Tax on transfer pricing regulations and the adjustments required to comply with new tax laws.

Key insights include how the Global Minimum Tax influences tax strategies, especially for FDI enterprises engaged in cross-border transactions. Enterprises will also gain insights into ensuring profits are reasonably allocated, reflecting the economic substance of activities, and avoiding profit shifting to low-tax jurisdictions.

By participating, enterprises will receive updates on the latest tax regulations and understand how to adjust their transfer pricing strategies to maintain compliance, optimize tax costs, and minimize international tax risks.

1. Impact of the Global Minimum Tax on transfer pricing determination.
2. Adjustments FDI enterprises need to make to tax structures and transfer pricing strategies to comply with new international tax regulations.
3. Legal and tax considerations in cross-border transactions where tax rate differences exist.
